FROM OUR PRESIDENT

DUE TO COVID WE HAVE NO MEETINGS SCHEDULED UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE! STAY SAFE AND WEAR MASKS.

Are you as desperately in need of human contact as I am? I thought so, therefore, Linda Harris and I decided to publish the newsletter in August to keep us connected. Also, Jane Garrison came up with a wonderful idea! She suggested that we all have someone take our pictures on our front porches (social distancing) holding one of our recent works of art. (Sample below) The pics will appear on our website under "Sharing Table". What a great way to keep in touch with one another! You can have someone take the picture with a cell phone and send it directly to Jeannie Boag, our webmaster, at wordcolors@earthlink.net.

EAFA MEMBERS EXHIBITION 2020

In other news, our 2020 Members Exhibition is now hung at University House in Issaquah. Members were assigned delivery times of their work to accommodate social distancing. Our curator and juror, Anna Macrae met the artists in the driveway entrance to accept their artwork. The exhibit will be up until November 22nd. There will not be a reception with the traditional presentation of awards. Therefore, I have phoned all the award recipients to congratulate them and will be mailing their awards and certificates. The awards will also be announced on our website.

AWARDS

Congratulations to the following artists whose work was chosen by our juror, Anna Macrae for special recognition:

First Place $300 to Dorothy Maja Sereda for "Marymoor Heronry"

Third Place $100 to Linda Harris for "Spider Webs II"
