DUE TO COVID WE HAVE NO MEETINGS SCHEDULED UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE! STAY SAFE AND WEAR MASKS.

FROM OUR PRESIDENT

Thanks to Eve Worrell and Jim Hendrickson for taping our October artist's demo and getting it on You Tube. I volunteered to tape the session painting an abstract in oil, explaining every step - very FUN! You can view it by clicking the link provided on our website or on the link below: https://youtu.be/aW_tXhzeZV4

Abstract challenge

Many of us are experiencing a creative slump due to a disruption in our normal routine. So, I thought trying something different and loose might be just what we all need. I have to paint both abstract and representational to keep my work fresh and maintain creative energy. Even if abstract isn't your cup of tea, I hope you will accept my challenge to paint an abstract and send me a photo of it: "jeanprattbeuoy@yahoo.com" The size should be "medium" on your phone. We will put them on our website in the "share table" section.

Kudos

Congrats to Linda Harris, whose paintings were juried into the Mt. SI exhibit, and to Alissa Adelson, who sold a painting at University House. Roger Baker, Hilda Bordianu, Linda Harris, and Eve Worrell all sold paintings in the Parklane Winter Miniature Show. There are also several other Eafa members in this show. Deanna Morgan wrote a fantastic article about Eafa for "ART CHOWDER" magazine. She was one of the people who established Eafa and really covered all that Eafa does for artists and the community.

Opportunity

Laura Grover suggested that when our on-line Members Exhibit ends, we use some of that space on our website for a virtual public art venue. We are asking members to submit photos (medium size on your phone) to Laura with size, title, medium and price. This is a great opportunity to get your art exhibited while so many of our venues are closed.

Stay well, keep painting, photographing, drawing, or whatever you enjoy...with a good cabernet!

From Jean Beuoy president of EAFA.

EAFA PUBLIC ART UPDATES

NOVEMBER 2020

The Public Art Program is a volunteer interest group within EAFA. The program provides appreciation and enjoyment of art to public and private audiences. It also gives opportunities to participating artists to exhibit and sell their artwork at several public and private venues.

Our participants' work includes collage, abstract and representational art in a variety of media and subjects. We welcome new members into our public art program as we are always looking for new venues. Our Public Art Members are much appreciated and I want to thank all of them for being part of this group.

We are in need of a co-manager for the Department of Ecology, 3190 160th Ave SE, Bellevue WA and at Overlake Hospital.

If anyone is interested in becoming an EAFA Public Art Manager or joining the EAFA Public Art Group please contact Laura Grover at bzak56@aol.com or phone: 425-753-4550.
