FROM OUR PRESIDENT

EAFA SPECIAL HOLIDAY ISSUE NEWSLETTER

Wishing you holidays filled with hope and peace.

Thanks to EAFA members who have contacted me with ideas and pics of their paintings!

Laura Grover, who chairs the Public Art Program came up with a great idea for using our website for a Public Art Venue. Many of our regular venues are closed due to the virus. Roger Baker and Charles Fawcett, the venue managers, will be working with Jeannie Boag, our webmaster, to get your wonderful art displayed. If you are not yet part of the Public Art Venue system, just e-mail Laura at bzak56@aol.com with photos of up to 5 pieces of your art indicating the title, size, medium, and price.

You can use your phone to take the photos, just select "medium" size. If you have not already filled out our Public Art Venue lending form, she will e-mail the form to you to fill out, scan and send back to her. This is a really easy way to get your artwork viewed - you don't have to deliver anything or go anywhere! We plan to have each exhibit up for three months.

Congratulations:

Joy Hagen was featured in The Seattle Times article about "Artists Sunday". A large photo of her encaustic piece was included in the article.

Lisa De Baets, juried into the Art Gallery of SnoValley exhibit, January to June and the San Diego International Watercolor Society Exhibit.

Charles Fawcett, Chair for the Pacific Rim of Maritime Artists and exhibitor - the on-line exhibit of all subjects. "primamaritime.org" select "gallery" This is an exceptional collection of finely executed work! Don't miss it, ends Dec. 30.

Please remember to let me know where you will be exhibiting and any news you'd like to share.
IT IS REALLY GREAT TO HEAR FROM YOU!

From Jean Beuoy president of EAFA.

EAFA PUBLIC ART UPDATES DECEMBER 2020

The Public Art Program is a volunteer interest group within EAFA. The program provides appreciation and enjoyment of art to public and private audiences. It also gives opportunities to participating artists to exhibit and sell their artwork at several public and private venues.

Our participants' work includes collage, abstract and representational art in a variety of media and subjects. We welcome new members into our public art program as we are always looking for new venues. Our Public Art Members are much appreciated and I want to thank all of them for being part of this group.

We are in need of a co-manager for the Department of Ecology, 3190 160th Ave SE, Bellevue WA and at Overlake Hospital.

If anyone is interested in becoming an EAFA Public Art Manager or joining the EAFA Public Art Group please contact Laura Grover at bzak56@aol.com or phone: 425-753-4550.
