FROM OUR PRESIDENT

WE ARE BACK! Our first meeting in two years will be Wednesday, March 16th from 10:00AM to noon at Westminster Chapel, 13646 N.E. 24th St. Bellevue. Our talented guest artist is long-time EAFA member, a past president, well known Northwest artist and art instructor, Steve Whitney. Steve will be demonstrating in watercolor and gauche.

As you probably heard, the mask mandate has been lifted in King County - that doesn't mean you aren't allowed to wear one if you feel safer doing so. I will continue to wear one for a while longer. You can keep up to date on any changes to the mandates at <https://bellevuewa.gov/city-government/departments/city-managers-office/communications/emergencies/covid-19/community-resources>

EAFA is now listed on the arts and entertainment events calendar easthub.org and EastsideLive.org. Check them out for interesting things to attend. You can also subscribe to "Crosscut Weekly Newsletter" to keep informed about the changing art scene and long-term plans for improving the support of fine art in Bellevue for the next five years.

Your board decided rather than extending our meetings into the summer, we have a picnic. I'm reserving a park space with covered picnic area sometime in July. Place and date TBA (when it stops raining).

Our Grants Chairperson, Joy Hagen has been very effective in finding funding to keep EAFA functioning. She could use some help obtaining the pricing and locations of possible office/ gallery and meeting space. There is a generous grant available for next year if we can gather the information she needs.

Hope to see you all at our meeting and remember to bring a painting, drawing other fine art piece to the critique table.

Jean Beuoy, jeanprattbeuoy@yahoo.com

FEATURED ARTIST: EVE WORRELL

Art for me is like writing a letter to the world, with color and design. Rendering the beauty, humor, and whimsy of everyday life — drawing and painting little jingles for fun and laughter.

It allows me to say things I can't say with words — transforming everyday delights into beautiful visuals that not only speak to me, but also to others.

I love discovering the endless possibilities.

KUDOS CORNER

Please feel free to share your sales to help encourage other members to keep painting! You can send your info to Linda Harris at johlin5@comcast.net.

Georgianne Arnot

"I sold a painting last week at Pacific Regent in Bellevue. Sunset Anchor 20x24. Pacific Regent is a place very supportive of the arts. One resident gives docent tours for residents. And they have wine and cheese receptions. This is my 2nd painting sold there this year."
